

ERA-EDTA CME Course

“Improving the patient and graft survival in kidney transplantation - an update”

Organized by the BANTAO association in collaboration with ERA-EDTA

Local organizers: Adalbert Schiller

Date: 26. 09. 2013.

Venue: Timisoara , Hotel Timisoara

Program:

26.09. 2013 – Thursday

08.00 – 08.30 Registration

08.30 – 08.40 Welcome addresses

Adalbert Schiller (President of the BANTAO Congress)

Goce Spasovski (ERA-EDTA CME Committee)

08.40 – 10.20 section A.

Pre-emptive kidney transplantation: an update - (Daniel Abramowicz - Belgium)

Living vs deceased donor kidney transplantation – what are the dilemmas? (Petar Kes - Croatia)

The options to prevent paid kidney transplantation – what have we learnt through SEE Health Network? (Goce Spasovski - Macedonia)

Challenges in kidney transplantation in 21st century (Jadranka Buturovic - Ponikvar - Slovenia)

10.20 - 10.40 coffee break

10.40 – 12.20 section B.

Different targets for immunosuppression in renal transplantation (John Boletis – Greece)

Can we prevent infections and neoplasias in kidney transplant recipients through an individualized approach (Nikolina Basic - Jukic - Croatia)

Many faces of transplant glomerular disease (Duska Dragun - Germany)

Mineral and bone disorders in kidney transplant recipients – do we have an appropriate prevention strategies (Adrian Covic – Romania)

12:20 – 13:00 Meet the expert session

Daniel Abramowicz – optimal timing for kidney transplantation

John Boletis – Immunosuppression in kidney transplantation

Nikolina Basic Jukic – Complications in kidney transplant recipients

Duska Dragun – Kidney transplants with recurrent GN